An aerial night photograph of a modern hotel complex. The main building is a multi-story structure with a blue and grey facade, illuminated with warm yellow lights from its windows and a vibrant green neon light along its roofline. A circular entrance canopy in the foreground features the name 'PAXTON' in white capital letters. To the right, a smaller white building with a blue roof is visible. The background shows a marina with numerous boats, including sailboats and yachts, and industrial structures with bright lights reflecting on the water. The overall scene is a mix of modern architecture and maritime activity.
